Dear XXXXX,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 25th June 2024 regarding energy management.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, research was conducted by the Facilities department at Wiltshire Police.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

- please share the NHH, HH, Gas and Specialist Gas/Liquid meter points of Energy Management
- please confirm when the Energy Management System will be implemented. It would be helpful if you mention the month/year

Our response:

No information held. We do not have an Energy Management System, nor plans to implement one.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely
