Dear XXXX,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 14th August 2024 regarding XL bully attacks.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, research was conducted by Team Performance at Wiltshire Police.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

- How many XL bully attacks have been recorded in your area since 1 Feb 2024?
- Could you also share how many XL bully attacks were recorded last year from Jan 23 to Dec 23?

Please illustrate this in a table/excel sheet with the respective police force in the first column, the month, the number of recorded attacks for that area, and then the number of fatal attacks for that area.

Our response:

| Month        | Number of attacks | Number of fatalities |
|--------------|-------------------|----------------------|
| March 2024   | 1                 | 0                    |
| July 2024    | 2                 | 0                    |
| Total | 3          | 0             |

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.
Keeping Wiltshire Safe

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,
