Dear,

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

Every summer, each police force writes a letter to the Premier League and/or Football League related to the fixture-setting process for the following football season.

This letter includes the force's requests for fixture pairing (one team playing home on the same matchweek that another team is playing away) and any other requests around fixturing that might help police, such as not wanting to a certain team to play at home when a political conference is happening.

Please provide me with a copy of your forces letter/s for the 2024/25 season.

The letter is likely to have been sent in May and June by a senior office who routinely deals with football policing.

Response

There is no information held by Wiltshire police as we do not send such letters at this time.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review.
