Dear XXXX,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 10th October 2024 regarding naloxone.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, research was conducted by Specialist Operations at Wiltshire Police.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

I am writing to request information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 regarding the use of naloxone by your police force. Specifically, I would like to know:

1. Whether your police officers carry naloxone.
2. If naloxone has been rolled out across the police force area to police officers, please confirm:
 - The date the rollout began.
 - The number of officers to whom naloxone has been distributed.
3. If your police force conducted a pilot program prior to the full rollout of naloxone:
 - Please confirm if a pilot program took place.
 - Provide details on the dates of the pilot.
 - Indicate which geographical area or division within your police force participated in the pilot.

Keeping Wiltshire Safe

Our response:

1. Wiltshire Police are currently running a 6-month pilot.
2.
 - Still in the pilot
 - 40 (only to enhanced Police Medics)
3.
 - Still in the pilot.
 - The pilot started 07/10/2024
 - Across Wiltshire.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely
