Ref: FOI 2024/1009

Dear,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 15th November 2024 concerning thefts of prams, buggies and pushchairs.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am not obliged to supply the information you have requested.

You wrote:

Please supply, broken down by either calendar or financial year - whichever is more readily accessible - the number of thefts and burglaries reported in your service area in which a pram, buggy, pushchair or stroller is mentioned as an item that was taken between January 2021 and the most recent possible date.

- Please break these down by theft and burglary where possible.
- Please break these down by calendar/financial year.

Our response:

The information that you are requesting for the majority of your request is not stored in a way which permits easy retrieval. Whilst our crime recording system(s) are sophisticated, we do not have designated mandatory fields dedicated to the recording of either what item(s) have been specifically stolen (such as prams, buggies and pushchairs etc), their value or precisely where they were stolen from in an accurate and/or easily retrievable manner.

Thefts of this nature could potentially be recorded under any of the following three Home Office categories:

- Thefts From a Motor Vehicle

Proud to serve and protect our communities

- Thefts From A Person
- All Other Theft Offences

Therefore, in order for us to obtain the information requested with regards to the number of pram, buggy and pushchair theft reports accurately, this would only be possible by manually accessing and reading through each individual crime log for offences that fall under the above Home Office categories since 2021, to see what reports may relate. As you can imagine, there would be hundreds if not thousands of thefts reports made since 2021 to manually peruse through, which would undoubtedly take us well over the allocated time frame we have to complete your request within. As a result, your request is exempt from disclosure due to time/cost limitations.

Under the circumstances I am absolutely confident that to locate, retrieve and extract the information you seek would by far exceed the time obligations upon this authority to comply, and in so doing would exceed the fees limits. This is set at £450 calculated at a flat rate of £25 per hour for those work activities comprising of confirming the information is held, locating it, retrieving it and extracting it.

Please note, that if one part of the request engages a Section 12 response, the whole request will engage a Section 12 response. The reason being is due to the fact that locating, retrieving and extracting any further information would only add to the already exceeded time obligations.

Ordinarily under our Section 16 duty to provide advice and assistance, we would advise you how to refine your request to a more manageable level. However, due to the difficulties outlined above, I cannot see how this can be achieved in this particular case.

Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires the Wiltshire Police, when refusing to provide such information (because the information is exempt) to provide you the applicant with a notice which: (a) states that fact, (b) specifies the exemption in question and (c) states (if that would not otherwise be apparent) why the exemption applies.

The exemption applicable to the information requested is:

Section 12 – Exemption where cost of compliance exceeds appropriate limit

- (1) Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.

In accordance with Section 17 of the Act, this letter represents a Refusal Notice for this particular request.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Force Disclosure Decision Maker

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from Wiltshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing to the:

Force Disclosure Unit
Wiltshire Police Headquarters,
London Road, Devizes,
Wiltshire,
SN10 2DN

Email at disclosure@wiltshire.police.uk.

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Force Disclosure Unit within 20 working days of the Force's response to the original FOI request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker, who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Force Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within twenty working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

The Independent Decision Maker will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, taking into account the matters raised by the complaint.

4. Conclusion of the Appeal

On completion of the review the Independent Decision Maker will reply to the complainant with the result of the review. If the complainant is still dissatisfied following the review, they should contact the Information Commissioner to make an appeal. The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following details:
