Dear XXXX,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 15th November 2024 regarding bin collections.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, research was conducted by Team Performance and Facilities at Wiltshire Police.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

I would like to make a request for data under the Freedom of Information Act regarding complaints made regarding bin collections.

Can you please provide me with the number of missed bin collections reported to your authority in 2023 and also the number so far in 2024

The number of complaints your authority has received regarding bin collections 2023 and also the number so far in 2024

Could you also provide, if possible, the number of domestic recycling bins used within your local authority.

Our response:

No information held.

Under Section 16 obligation to provide advice and assistance, we would advise that this request may be better suited to the council.

Keeping Wiltshire Safe

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Force Disclosure Decision Maker
