Dear XXXX,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 18th November 2024 regarding burglaries.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, research was conducted by Team Performance at Wiltshire Police.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote (and our response):

1. Please could you state the number of burglaries that you have recorded as having taken place on 25.12.23?

1

2. In relation to all of those offences recorded by you in Q.1 could you provide me with a table showing the Home Office prescribed Outcomes for all of those offences? Eg. Charged, Cautioned, Ongoing, Transferred to Other Force, Evidential Problems etc.

Outcome 15 - named suspect, victim supports but evidential difficulties

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Force Disclosure Decision Maker
