Dear,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 23rd November 2024 concerning sexual entertainment venues.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and after having consulted our Licensing Officers and Neighbourhoods team – I am now able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

Are you aware of any sexual entertainment venues (SEVs) that operate under the frequency exemption as permitted by the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982 within your area of responsibility and the dates that they operate?

Our response:

No information held.

As part of our Section 16 duty to provide advice and guidance where possible, I would suggest that you redirect your request to Wiltshire Council and/or Swindon Borough Council as they may be able to further assist.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,
