Our Ref FOI 2024-1053

Dear XXXX,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 26th November 2024, concerning hate crimes and non-crime hate incidents.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, research was conducted by Team Performance at Wiltshire Police. Your request for information has now been considered and I am not obliged to supply the information you have requested.

You wrote:

1. Broken down by month and type of hate offence (e.g. disability, Christianity, Islam, Judaism, sexual orientation, transgender identity, alternative subculture, and any other listed category), every hate crime and non-crime hate incident recorded by your force in the following years: 2019, 2020, 2021, 2022, 2023 and 2024 (up until 31 October).
2. For every recorded offence in the same period, (i) the exact nature of the actions or words used, (ii) where it was carried out (either a location such as school, workplace, street etc, or a specific social media platform/internet website), and (iii) the age of the perpetrator.
3. For each recorded offence in the same period, the action taken by police and outcome of the offence (e.g. £50 fine, no further action, et cetera, sent for prosecution, et cetera).

Our response:

Section 1 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA) places two duties on public authorities. Unless exemptions apply, the first duty at s1(1)(a) is to confirm or deny whether the information specified in a request is held. The second duty at s1(1)(b) is to disclose information that has been confirmed as being held.

Whilst I can confirm Wiltshire Police do hold the requested information, section 12(1) of the FOIA states:-

Keeping Wiltshire Safe

Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.

The information you are requesting, mainly in relation to Q2(ii), is not stored in a way which permits for easy retrieval. Whilst our systems do have a data field that can be completed for the location of an incident, this is not a mandatory field and therefore is unreliable to use when retrieving data. In order to determine the location of each incident, we would be required to manually investigate each incident and within the time frame requested, there are more than 4,600 occurrences that would need to be reviewed. If each review took on average only one minute, that would still equate to nearly 77 hours.

It is also worth noting that with regard to Q2(i), we would also be required to review each individual MO field and possibly investigation log to retrieve the information requested and determine whether there was any personal data contained that would need to be redacted prior to disclosure.

Under the circumstances I am absolutely confident that to locate, retrieve and extract the information you seek would by far exceed the time obligations upon this authority to comply, and in so doing would exceed the fees limits. This is set at £450 calculated at a flat rate of £25 per hour for those work activities comprising of confirming the information is held, locating it, retrieving it and extracting it. Therefore the whole of the request should fall under the exemption of section 12 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Please note:

If one part of the request engages a Section 12 response, the whole request will engage a Section 12 response. The reason being is due to the fact that locating, retrieving and extracting any further information would only add to the already exceeded time obligations.

Forces may use different recording systems, therefore it may be possible some Forces can provide this information where others cannot.

Ordinarily under our Section 16 obligation to provide advice and assistance we would advise you of a way to refine your request to a more manageable level. Due to the difficulties in obtaining the requested information, as outlined above, I cannot think of a way in which this could be achieved.

Although excess cost removes the Forces' obligations under the Freedom of Information Act, as a gesture of goodwill I have supplied information, relative to your request, retrieved or available before it was realised that the fees limit would be exceeded. I trust this is helpful, but it does not affect our legal right to rely on the fees regulations for the remainder of your request. What I can provide you with is documented below:

Caveats:

- NCHIs came into effect June 2023, so data is provided from 01/06/23 – 29/11/24
- There is a known issue with Hate Crime disposals where some records show as closed with no suspect, but the summary field includes 'known male' etc., therefore, this data may be inaccurate
