I write in connection with your request for information dated 2nd December 2024 concerning Grindr.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am now able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

I have attached an FOI response which your force kindly provided on 8th June 2022 (Reference: FOI 2022 / 473).

This concerns the number of crimes reported to your force that include reference to the dating app Grindr and whereby the victim of the alleged offence is under the age of 18. Wiltshire Police responded with some information about two cases:

1. Blackmail (x1 in 2021)
2. Engage in sexual communication with a child (x1 in 2021)

Please confirm how the dating app Grindr was involved in these two offences. Did the alleged victims use Grindr and that is how they came into contact with the suspect?

Our response:

2021 Blackmail: The victim made contact with the suspect on Grindr

2021 Engage in sexual communication with a child: The suspect made contact with the victim on Grindr

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,
Force Disclosure Decision Maker
