Ref: FOI 2024/1102

Dear,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 13th December 2024 concerning organised crime groups.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am not obliged to supply the information you have requested.

We are requesting information from all police forces via FOI requests. Specifically, we are interested in the figures/ information relating to:

- Number of organised crime groups in your force area.
- Where these organised crime groups are distributed in your force area.
- Number of arrests for drug supply offences (both OCG and non-OCG).
- Quantity and type of drug commodity seized (both OCG and non-OCG).

For the years:

2023-2024
2022-2023
2021-2022
2020-2021
2019-2020

Our response:

The information that you are requesting for part of your request (namely questions 3 & 4) is not stored in a way which permits easy retrieval. This is because in order to determine whether we even hold this information, we would have to physically peruse through every drug offence report for the years requested where an arrest was made, in order to establish whether the individual(s) who were arrested may have been suspected to have been a part of an organized crime group or not. Once we have established whether we even hold this information pertaining to arrests made regarding members of organized crime groups, then we would need to continue to trawl through these reports in order to obtain the quantity and type of drug that may have been seized. Again, this is not information we can confirm we hold unless a manual perusal of information were to take place and as you can imagine, there would be a substantial number of drug offence related reports for the years requested that we would need to individually assess, of which would undoubtedly take us well over the allocated time frame we have to furnish your request within.

Therefore, under the circumstances, I am absolutely confident that to attempt to locate, retrieve and extract the information you seek would by far exceed the time obligations upon this authority to comply with Section 1 of the Freedom of Information Act (which is to confirm in writing whether we hold the information requested or not), and in so doing would exceed the fees limits. This is set at £450 calculated at a flat rate of £25 per hour for those work activities comprising of confirming the information is held, locating it, retrieving it and extracting it.

Please note, that if one part of the request engages a Section 12 response, the whole request will engage a Section 12 response. The reason being is due to the fact that locating, retrieving and extracting any further information would only add to the already exceeded time obligations.

Ordinarily under our Section 16 duty to provide advice and assistance, we would advise you how to refine your request to a more manageable level. However, due to the difficulties outlined above, I cannot see how this can be achieved in this particular case as I anticipate that further exemptions will likely still apply to the remainder of your request.

Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires the Wiltshire Police, when refusing to provide such information (because the information is exempt) to provide you the applicant with a notice which: (a) states that fact, (b) specifies the exemption in question and (c) states (if that would not otherwise be apparent) why the exemption applies.

The exemption applicable to the information requested is:

Section 12(2) – Exemption where cost of compliance exceeds appropriate limit

(2) Subsection (1) does not exempt the public authority from its obligation to comply with paragraph (a) of section 1(1) unless the estimated cost of complying with that paragraph alone would exceed the appropriate limit.

In accordance with Section 17 of the Act, this letter represents a Refusal Notice for this particular request.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Proud to serve and protect our communities

Wiltshire Police offers a re-examination of your case under its review procedure.

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from Wiltshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing to the:

Force Disclosure Unit
Wiltshire Police Headquarters,
London Road, Devizes,
Wiltshire,
SN10 2DN

Email at disclosure@wiltshire.police.uk.

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Force Disclosure Unit within 20 working days of the Force's response to the original FOI request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker, who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Force Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within twenty working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

The Independent Decision Maker will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, taking into account the matters raised by the complaint.
