Dear XXXXX,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 1st January 2025 regarding trans/gender fluid officer identity cards.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, research was conducted by Facilities at Wiltshire Police.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

There is police guidance online that suggests:

"Individuals who identify as gender-fluid may require two cards to reflect their gender on different days."

Are you able to let me know how many trans/gender-fluid officers currently have more than one warrant/identity card to reflect different genders?

Our response:

0 (zero) – Wiltshire Police warrant and ID cards do not show gender / pronouns.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely Force Disclosure Decision Maker
