Dear XXXXXXXXXX,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 24th January 2025 concerning officer training.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote and our response:

- 1) How many staff are allocated to training new police officers - We have a team of 1 Inspector, 1 Sergeant and 8 trainers. During new officers initial training phase, 2 trainers are allocated per cohort of student officers with a maximum ratio of 1 trainer to 9 students.
- 2) How many have teaching qualifications - It is the expectation that all staff have training qualifications. These are not a mandatory requirement to join the department, however trainers are expected to be undertaking these qualifications upon joining.
- 3) What qualifications are required for the role - The entry level is a level 3 qualification in education and training. Trainers are expected to be working towards and achieving their level 5 Post Compulsory Education & Training \(PCET\).

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.
