Ref: FOI 2025/148

Dear,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 4th February 2025 concerning incidents involving banned dog breeds.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am not obliged to supply the information you have requested.

You wrote:

1. Since 31st December 2023, how many incidents have you attended, that has involved dogs of a banned breed type?
2. Since 31st December 2023, how many dogs have you seized for being a suspected banned breed type?.
3. How many banned breed types, have died whilst being held in police approved kennels, since December 31st 2023?
4. How many banned breed types, have been destroyed at the scene of an incident by your firearms officers since December 31st 2023?
5. The cost of policing dangerous dog incidents, has said to have risen since 31st December 2023. The interim exemption scheme is available to all forces, would this be something you would consider implementing to reduce those associated costs?

Our response:

The information that you are requesting for question 1 in particular is not stored in a way which permits easy retrieval. This is because there is no specific crime type that relates to banned dog breeds that we can search on in order to easily and accurately retrieve this data. Therefore, in order to extract this information in full, we would have to manually peruse through all reports and deployments where our Dog Unit has attended an incident since the 31st December 2023; of which, would take us well over the allocated time frame we have to furnish your request within.

Proud to serve and protect our communities

Therefore, under the circumstances I am absolutely confident that to locate, retrieve and extract the information you seek would by far exceed the time obligations upon this authority to comply, and in so doing would exceed the fees limits. This is set at £450 calculated at a flat rate of £25 per hour for those work activities comprising of confirming the information is held, locating it, retrieving it and extracting it.

Please note, that if one part of the request engages a Section 12 response, the whole request will engage a Section 12 response. The reason being is due to the fact that locating, retrieving and extracting any further information would only add to the already exceeded time obligations.

Although excess cost removes the forces' obligations under the Freedom of Information Act, as a gesture of goodwill I have supplied information, relative to your request, retrieved or available before it was realised that the fees limit would be exceeded. I trust this is helpful, but it does not affect our legal right to rely on the fees regulations for the remainder of your request. What I am able to provide you are the answers documented below –

2. Since 31st December 2023, how many dogs have you seized for being a suspected banned breed type?.

53.

3. How many banned breed types, have died whilst being held in police approved kennels, since December 31st 2023?

12 put to sleep.

4. How many banned breed types, have been destroyed at the scene of an incident by your firearms officers since December 31st 2023?

Zero.

5. The cost of policing dangerous dog incidents, has said to have risen since 31st December 2023. The interim exemption scheme is available to all forces, would this be something you would consider implementing to reduce those associated costs?

Yes.

Ordinarily under our Section 16 duty to provide advice and assistance, we would advise you how to refine your request in respect of question 1 to a more manageable level. However, due to the difficulties outlined above, I cannot see how this can be achieved in this particular case.

Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires the Wiltshire Police, when refusing to provide such information (because the information is exempt) to provide you the applicant with a notice which: (a) states that fact, (b) specifies the exemption in question and (c) states (if that would not otherwise be apparent) why the exemption applies.

The exemption applicable to the information requested is:

Section 12 – Exemption where cost of compliance exceeds appropriate limit

(1) Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.

In accordance with Section 17 of the Act, this letter represents a Refusal Notice for this particular request.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Force Disclosure Decision Maker
