Dear XXXX,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 10th February 2025 regarding home visits.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, research was conducted by Talent Acquisition and Workforce Planning at Wiltshire Police.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote (and our response):

1. Do you currently carry out home visits as part of the recruitment process for police officers No
2. If Y to Q1, when did home visits became a mandatory part of your recruitment process for police officers? N/A
3. How many home visits did you carry out in 2024? 0 (zero)
4. How many new police officers joined the force in 2023? 142
5. How many new police officers joined the force in 2024? 62

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Force Disclosure Decision Maker
