Our Ref FOI 2025-224

Dear XXXXX,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 20th February 2025, concerning drink spiking.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, research was conducted by the Business Intelligence department at Wiltshire Police.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

How many incidents of drink spiking were recorded by your force from the years 2019-2024?

What was the location of the drink spiking incidents from the years 2019-2024?

How many cases of drink spiking resulted in a court case/prosecution from the years 2019-2024?

How many cases from the years 2019-2024 were successful? I.e., was the offender charged?

Could I please have this information broken down into yearly?

Our response:

Please note: There is no specific offence description for spiking, therefore, the following data is likely to be an underestimate of the true figures. The following offence descriptions have been used to retrieve this data:

- Administering a substance with intent
- Administering a substance with intent (S61, SOA 2003)
- Administering poison so as to endanger life
- Administering poison with intent to injure or annoy

Keeping Wiltshire Safe

- Cause administer poison with intent to injure / aggrieve / annoy

How many incidents of drink spiking were recorded by your force from the years 2019-2024?

How many cases of drink spiking resulted in a court case/prosecution from the years 2019-2024?

No information held - Wiltshire Police do not hold conviction data. Under our section 16 duty to assist, I would advise you contact the Courts directly to obtain this information.

How many cases from the years 2019-2024 were successful? I.e., was the offender charged?

No individuals have been charged, although some matters are still under investigation.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Force Disclosure Decision Maker

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from Wiltshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing to the:

Force Disclosure Unit
Wiltshire Police Headquarters,
London Road, Devizes,
Wiltshire,
SN10 2DN

Email at disclosure@wiltshire.police.uk.

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Force Disclosure Unit within 20 working days of the Force's response to the original Fol request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker, who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Force Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within twenty working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

The Independent Decision Maker will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, taking into account the matters raised by the complaint.

4. Conclusion of the Appeal

On completion of the review the Independent Decision Maker will reply to the complainant with the result of the review. If the complainant is still dissatisfied following the review they should contact the Information Commissioner to make an appeal. The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following details:

Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
Cheshire
SK9 5AF
Tel: 01625 545 700
Fax: 01625 524 510
Email: mail@ico.gsi.gov.uk

Please note that the ICO's offices will be closed for the foreseeable future and are therefore unable to receive correspondence via post.
