Dear,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 11/02/2025 concerning recruitment, race and ethnicity.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

1. How many minority officers and staff, categorised by race ethnicity, were promoted each month from January 2022 to January 2023
2. How many minority officers and staff, categorized by race and ethnicity, joined the police service each month from January 2022 to January 2023?
3. How many changes to recruitment or promotion policies were made annually since January 2022? What months? Please specify how many were directly linked to recommendations from diversity reviews or external pressures.

Response:

Q1: Please note that this table has been completed by month / year. All ethnicities have been included for transparency. This table holds data for all substantive and temporary promotions, but not 'acting up' positions.

Q3:

None - We do not currently have a Recruitment Policy as the last version was archived in 2018. We have a Promotions Procedure but that has not been updated since 2020.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely

Force Disclosure Decision Maker

Any person who has requested information from Wiltshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing to the:

Force Disclosure Unit
Wiltshire Police Headquarters,

Wiltshire,

Email at disclosure@wiltshire.police.uk.

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Force Disclosure Unit within 20 working days of the Force's response to the original FoI request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker, who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Force Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within twenty working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

The Independent Decision Maker will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, taking into account the matters raised by the complaint.
