Our Ref FOI 2025-290

Dear XXXXX,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 12th March 2025, concerning Highway Code Rule 57 violations (failure to properly restrain animals in a vehicle).

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, research was conducted by the Justice Traffic department at Wiltshire Police.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

I would like to request the following information regarding violations of Highway Code Rule 57 (failure to properly restrain animals in a vehicle):

1. The total number of fines issued for breaches of Rule 57 over the last 3 years.
2. The total revenue generated from these fines for each year.
3. A breakdown of the types of animals involved in these violations.

For clarity, I would appreciate it if the breakdown could include:

- The specific type of animal involved (e.g., dogs, cats, other pets).
- The number of fines issued for each type of animal.
- The revenue generated from fines related to each type of animal.

Please provide this data separately for each year so that a year-on-year comparison can be made.

Our Response:

No information held - There is not a specific offence for this rule. Offences relating to failure to properly restrain animals in a vehicle would likely be recorded under 'dangerous conditions due to position of load' or 'without due care and attention'.

Please note: Even if you were to refine your request to include the above offence types, the Section 12 (cost of compliance exceeds appropriate limit) exemption would be engaged. This is because the specific details of an offence are not listed on the Fixed Penalty Notice, so our Justice Traffic department would have to manually interrogate each record to establish if they were relevant to this request.

Under our section 16 duty to provide advice and assistance, we would advise you contact the Courts to see if they can be of assistance.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Force Disclosure Decision Maker

Wiltshire Police offers a re-examination of your case under its review procedure.

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing to the:
