Our Ref FOI 2025-342

Dear XXXXX,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 25th March 2025, concerning Tell Mama anti-Muslim hate crime bulletins.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, research was conducted by the Hate Crime Lead at Wiltshire Police.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

The anti-Muslim hate monitoring service Tell Mama has data sharing agreements with various police forces and provides them with regular, I believe they are quarterly, bulletins on anti-muslim hate crimes and incidents.

Please can you provide me with:

1. A copy of all quarterly* bulletins on anti-muslim hate crimes and incident received by your police force from Tell Mama in the calendar year 2024?

(Please note, I've said quarterly bulletins because, as far as I'm aware, this is how regularly they provide bulletins on anti-muslim hate crime and incidents to police forces. However, please provide all such bulletins provided in 2024 even if they were provided over a different time frame, such as once or twice during the year)

Our Response:

No information held - Wiltshire Police do not receive this bulletin.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Keeping Wiltshire Safe

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.
