Dear,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 21/05/2025 concerning parking tickets issued to police staff.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote with Response:

I would like to request the following information regarding parking tickets issued to serving police officers for each year from 2022 to the present (or the most recent year available):

1. The total number of parking tickets issued to police officers in your force area.

The total number of Parking Tickets received for 2022 to 3rd June 2025 are 111

2. The number of these tickets that were paid.

The number of Parking Tickets that were paid from 2022 to 3rd June 2025 are 3

3. The number of tickets that were cancelled or overturned.

The number of Parking Tickets exempted or cancelled from 2022 to 3rd June 2025 are 108.

4. The reasons provided for cancellation or overturning of these tickets (e.g., operational necessity, administrative error, appeal upheld, etc.).

Keeping Wiltshire Safe

Exemptions were submitted when the vehicle being parked was involved in a Policing Purpose or Operational Necessity to reduce the danger to members of the public and victims involved in the relevant incidents that Officers were attending. The reasons for exemptions all vary due to the type of incidents that the Officers attended, for example, an Officer might have had to park their Police Vehicle in a hurry when a suspect made off on foot, so the Officer/s could give chase or do an immediate area search. Another reason that was given was due to two Officers having to remain with a person who was a 'concern for safety' and couldn't be left alone till further assistance arrived.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely

Force Disclosure Decision Maker

Wiltshire Police offers a re-examination of your case under its review procedure.

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from Wiltshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing to the:

Force Disclosure Unit
Wiltshire Police Headquarters,
London Road, Devizes,
Wiltshire,
SN10 2DN

Email at disclosure@wiltshire.police.uk.

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Force Disclosure Unit within 20 working days of the Force's response to the original FoI request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker, who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Force Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within twenty working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

The Independent Decision Maker will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, taking into account the matters raised by the complaint.

4. Conclusion of the Appeal

Keeping Wiltshire Safe

On completion of the review the Independent Decision Maker will reply to the complainant with the result of the review. If the complainant is still dissatisfied following the review they should contact the Information Commissioner to make an appeal. The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following details:
