Dear XXXX,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 19th June 2025 regarding Evidence-Based Policing.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, research was conducted by Crime Reduction and Prevention at Wiltshire Police.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote (and our response):

I am writing to request information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Please could you provide the following information:

1. Has your police force used the College of Policing's Evidence-Based Policing (EBP) Maturity Model? No
2. If so, do you have a policy or formal guidance on the routine use or implementation of the EBP Maturity Model? N/A
3. Who within your organisation is responsible for completing or overseeing the use of the EBP Maturity Model (e.g., job title or department)? N/A
4. If available, please provide any documentation, policies, or internal communications that outline your approach to the EBP Maturity Model. N/A

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Keeping Wiltshire Safe

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely
