Dear XXXX

I write in connection with your request for information dated 19/11/2025 concerning Domestic abuse relating to Football.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

I am requesting access for your domestic violence reports every day for the months - November and December 2022 (Qatar World Cup) June and July 2024 (Euros)

If possible please may I have the day by day data split into whether the victim was male or female. This will allow me to both assess the difference between normal days and match days, and look at gender difference.

Response:

No information held.

Unless a suspect volunteers the information for the domestic abuse was a direct result of a football match we have no way of holding this information, therefore we cannot speculate or record this information.

You could try the United Kingdom Football Policing Unit to see if they have any data.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Keeping Wiltshire Safe

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely

Force Disclosure Decision Maker

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review.
