Dear XXX,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 7th July 2025 regarding food delivery driver crimes.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, research was conducted by Team Performance at Wiltshire Police.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

- 1) In the 2024/25 financial year (1st April 2024 to 31st March 2025), how many crimes were logged by your force where Deliveroo, Just Eat, and/or Uber Eats were recorded as being an element in the offence? [Note: I would hope that this could be determined by a computer search on the "investigation summary field" and/or the modus operandi (MO) of crimes for the company names.]
- 2) Please provide me with a table showing a breakdown of the crimes from Question 1 that are 'linked' to Deliveroo, Just Eat, and/or Uber Eats by their mention in the MO/investigation summary field. Please break down the total by company.
- 3) Taking a start date of 1st April 2024 please provide me with copies of the first 10 MOs/investigation summary fields that mention either Deliveroo, Just Eat and/or Uber Eats. [Note: To assist with disclosure and to avoid engaging exemptions under s.40, I am content for names, locations, and other identifying details to be redacted. I am seeking insight into the nature of the incident and how Deliveroo, Just Eat, or Uber Eats were relevant.]

| The user of the TikTok account associated to email address has uploaded a media file to the internetThe video reported appears to be two children in self-generated video, one baring bottom to camera.                                                                                           |
| Known male working as Deliveroo delivery driver has sexually assaulted the IP by putting his hands under her tee-shirt and grabbing her breast whilst delivering a Mcdonalds meal to her home address.                                                                                                |
| IP has ordered from Uber Eats. The male delivery driver attended IP's address with her food. After IP thanked the driver, the driver grabbed IP's arm and pulled her in towards him and gave IP a hug. The driver then gave the IP a kiss on the cheek leaving the IP very shaken and feeling uneasy. |
| Unknown suspect has used RP's cashback card and spent £250 on Just Eat                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| IP whilst working for Uber Eats drove food from Tesco Express to an address and was bitten and injured by their dog when the door was opened for the delivery. IP then went to GWH for treatment as the dogs teeth pierced his skin in 2 places. Unsure of CCTV in the area.                          |
| IP was delivering an order for Deliveroo at the address, when the door was opened a dog came out and bit their leg.                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Unknown suspect has been sending the IP things from moon pig and Deliveroo, IP believes this is malicious.                                                                                                                                                                                            |

Please note, these results have been obtained using a keyword search for "Deliveroo" "just eat" and "uber eats", therefore this not reliable data. Redactions have been made where applicable to avoid the identification of individuals.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.
