Dear XXX,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 28th July 2025 concerning Pride month 2025.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

Whether any events have been organised for Pride month. If so please provide the date, start and end time, and title/topic of the event.

Whether any LGBT themed merchandise has been purchased for Pride month. i.e. since the beginning of the 2025/26 financial year. If so please provide me with information on what has been purchased and the cost.

Whether the organisation have sponsored any Pride events. If so which events and please provide details of the nature of the sponsorship (particularly the financial value).

Response:

Since 2024, a member of the Chief Officer Group has attended all local pride events held in Wiltshire/Swindon. This year, this has included Chippenham Pride, Calne Pride and Swindon & Wiltshire Pride (due to be held on Aug 9).

A number of public engagement items – such as fluffy bugs, t-shirts and stress balls, have been purchased to hand out to the community at the Swindon and Wiltshire Pride event. Cost was £749.50 (excl VAT). However, no LGBT merchandise has been purchased for the purpose of PRIDE month, the purchase is for the LGBTQ+ network awareness campaigns and wider community engagement not just for Pride month.

Keeping Wiltshire Safe

Wiltshire Police is a sponsor of the Swindon and Wiltshire Pride event and has donated £1,000.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely

Force Disclosure Decision Maker

Wiltshire Police offers a re-examination of your case under its review procedure.
