Our Ref FOI 2025-686

Dear XXXXX,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 21st July 2025, concerning Palestine Action Officer guidance. Please accept my apologies for the delay in responding to your request.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, research was conducted by the Specialist Operations department at Wiltshire Police. Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

Please provide me with copies of all guidance that has been provided to police officers regarding the recent proscription of Palestine Action under terrorism legislation.

For the avoidance of doubt, this should include any written guidance about the policing of the proscription of Palestine Action specifically, as well as any guidance about the policing of proscribed groups in general - whether or not the guidance specifically mentions Palestine Action.

It should also include the minutes of any meetings, or documents relating to any presentations, which have been prepared for the purpose of providing guidance to officers.

Please provide me with any such guidance which has been issued since 01 July 2025.

Our response:

The information you are requesting is exempt by virtue of Section 21 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 – Information accessible to applicant by other means.

The following link will direct you to the Wiltshire Police website, where a response has already been provided in relation to another request concerning Palestine Action Officer guidance – foi-2025-685-palestine-action-officer-guidance.pdf.
