Dear,

I write in connection with your request for information, dated 14th August 2025 concerning integrity reviews.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, research was conducted by the Policy Officer, Professional Standards and HR Departments of Wiltshire Police.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am not obliged to supply the information you have requested.

You Wrote:

Since 30th April 2023, what is your policy to ensure that there is a robust process for completing annual integrity reviews for all officers and staff?

From April 30th 2023 to April 30th 2024 how many officers were subject to integrity review? From April 30th 2024 to April 30th 2025 how many officers were subject to their first review and how many were subject to their second review? From April 30th 2025 to 15th August 2025 how many officers were subject to their first reviews and how many officers who had previously been reviewed were reviewed again?

Of those reviewed:

- How many officers have failed the integrity review process?
- How many officers have subsequently lost their jobs as a result of this process?

How many officers who have undergone integrity reviews during this period have had allegations of domestic abuse made against them?

Response:

The information that you are requesting, specifically for Question Two, is not stored in a way which allows for easy retrieval and Wiltshire Police does not have the search facility to automatically gather this data. To clarify, our HR Department have confirmed that our current reporting system does not easily allow for us to gather this information. Therefore, to ascertain this data for the requested time periods would require manually searching and reading each and every 'professional development review' individually to see if it related to this Question.

Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires the Wiltshire Police, when refusing to provide such information (because the information is exempt) to provide you the applicant with a notice which: (a) states that fact, (b) specifies the exemption in question and (c) states (if that would not otherwise be apparent) why the exemption applies.

The exemption applicable to the information requested is:

Section 12: Exemption where cost of compliance exceeds appropriate limit
Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.

In accordance with section 17 of the Act, this letter represents a Refusal Notice for this particular request.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me, and been considered in the light of your request, within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours Sincerely

Wiltshire Police offers a re-examination of your case under its review procedure.

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from Wiltshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing to the:
Force Disclosure Unit
Wiltshire Police Headquarters,

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker, who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Force Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within twenty working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.
