Our Ref FOI 2025-727

Dear XXXXX,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 29th July 2025, concerning Crime, Stop & Search, Use of Force data. Please accept my apologies for the delay in responding to your request.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, research was conducted by the Business Intelligence department at Wiltshire Police. Your request for information has now been considered and I am not obliged to supply the information you have requested.

Our response:

Section 1 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA) places two duties on public authorities. Unless exemptions apply, the first duty at s1(1)(a) is to confirm or deny whether the information specified in a request is held. The second duty at s1(1)(b) is to disclose information that has been confirmed as being held.

Whilst I can confirm Wiltshire Police do hold the requested information, section 12(1) of the FOIA states:-

Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.

The information you are requesting - namely in relation to question 2 : gang-related violence - is not stored in a way which permits for easy retrieval. Whilst there is a gang related flag on our system, this is linked to a person and would not specifically be used for an offence. In addition, it could be argued that any crime group could have an element of violence linked to it. For the requested period, there were 277122 offences recorded for the crime groups - Arson And Criminal Damage; Burglary; Drug Offences; Miscellaneous Crimes Against Society; Possession Of Weapons; Public Order Offences; Robbery; Sexual Offences; Theft Offences; Vehicle Offences; Violence Against The Person. Even only looking at Violence Against The Person offences, there were a total of 111300 occurrences recorded. The only way to establish if this was gang-related violence would be to manually interrogate each record, and completing this task would far exceed the time obligations on the authority to respond.

Under the circumstances I am absolutely confident that to locate, retrieve and extract the information you seek would by far exceed the time obligations upon this authority to comply, and in so doing would exceed the fees limits. This is set at £450 calculated at a flat rate of £25 per hour for those work activities comprising of confirming the information is held, locating it, retrieving it and extracting it. Therefore the whole of the request should fall under the exemption of section 12 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Please note:

If one part of the request engages a Section 12 response, the whole request will engage a Section 12 response. The reason being is due to the fact that locating, retrieving and extracting any further information would only add to the already exceeded time obligations.

Forces may use different recording systems, therefore it may be possible some Forces can provide this information where others cannot.

Under our Section 16 obligation to provide advice and assistance, we would advise you to refine your request to a more manageable level. Questions 3 and 6 could not be actioned within the time set upon the authority to respond to FOI requests, and therefore we would suggest, if this information is still required, that these questions are submitted as their own FOI request. Note - Refining your request does not guarantee that exemptions will not still apply.

Although excess cost removes the Forces' obligations under the Freedom of Information Act, as a gesture of goodwill I have supplied information, relative to your request, retrieved or available before it was realised that the fees limit would be exceeded. I trust this is helpful, but it does not affect our legal right to rely on the fees regulations for the remainder of your request. What I can provide you with is documented below:
