Dear XXXXX,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 26/08/2025 concerning soil and rock samples.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

We would like to know:

- The number of soil samples that your force analysed and sent for analysis dated back to 2015, the last 10 years
- The number of sediment/rock samples that your force analysed and sent for analysis dated back to 2015, the last 10 years
- What analyses/techniques were used on the sediment, soil and rock samples dated back to 2015, the last 10 years
- The cost of all above analyses to the force

Response:

- None of the SWF Forces analyse Soil Samples in house so no analysis has been done in house. Wiltshire have had 1 Soil Sample analysed in the last 10 years.
- None of our SWF Forces have had any sediment or Rock samples analysed either in force or sent externally.
- Although Wiltshire have had 1 soil sample sent for analysis, this was sent to an external company so I am not able to advise on what analyses/techniques were used.
- The cost for the Wiltshire Soil analysis was £5,590.00.
