Dear XXXX,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 7th October regarding unsolved murders.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

Please can you provide me with the following information, available under the Freedom of Information Act 2000:

A list of all open murder investigations (unsolved murders) within Wiltshire Police authority, for murders committed between 1985 and 2000.

Please include the name of the victim, and the location and date of the crime.

Our response:

1: Sally Ann John, Swindon, September 1995.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely
