Our Ref FOI 2025-992

Dear XXXXX,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 19th October 2025, concerning Terrorism Act FOI requests.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, research was conducted by the Force Disclosure Unit at Wiltshire Police.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

I would like to know how many FOI requests you have had in the last year from the date of this request relating to Terrorism Acts and how many you have declined to answer on the grounds of legal exemption.

Our response:

There have been two FOI requests within the last year that referenced the Terrorism Act.

- FOI 2025-752 relates to the number of arrests under the Terrorism Act 2000.
- FOI 2025-845 relates to Palestine Action policing protest costs, however this includes two questions linked to the Terrorism Act 2000.

The response letters for these FOI requests are available on the Wiltshire Police website, therefore this is exempt by virtue of Section 21 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 – Information accessible to applicant by other means.

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from Wiltshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing to the:

Force Disclosure Unit
Wiltshire Police Headquarters,
London Road, Devizes,
Wiltshire,
SN10 2DN

Email at disclosure@wiltshire.police.uk.

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Force Disclosure Unit within 20 working days of the Force's response to the original Fol request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker, who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Force Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within twenty working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

The Independent Decision Maker will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, taking into account the matters raised by the complaint.

4. Conclusion of the Appeal

On completion of the review the Independent Decision Maker will reply to the complainant with the result of the review. If the complainant is still dissatisfied following the review they should contact the Information Commissioner to make an appeal.
