Reply contact name is:

Dear,

I write in connection with your request for information, dated 20th December 2025.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, research was conducted by the Business Intelligence Department of Wiltshire Police.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am not obliged to supply the information you have requested.

You Wrote:

- 1) Please provide the number of recorded crimes - broken down by offence type - in the period from 1 January 2025 to the date of this request where there is no record of any victim contact having taken place after the initial report of the offence to your force.

For the avoidance of doubt, this request relates to cases where no subsequent victim contact is recorded on the force crime recording or case management system, regardless of whether the offence was later closed or resulted in a positive outcome.

- 2) If held, please can you also provide the total number of recorded crimes - broken down by offence type - over the same period, to allow for a contextual comparison.

I want to clarify that the part of the investigation I am referring to in terms of no further victim contact is from the point of reporting (so before a statement may have been given).

Keeping Wiltshire Safe

Response:

The information that you are requesting is not stored in a way which allows for easy retrieval and Wiltshire Police does not have the search facility to automatically gather this data. To clarify, our Business Intelligence Department have confirmed that to ascertain this information for the requested time period would require manually searching and reading each and every crime individually to review the final victim contact. This would be over 45 thousand crimes and therefore would exceed the 18 hour work limit to locate, retrieve and extract the data, engaging Section 12.

However, under our Section 16 obligation to provide advice and assistance, I have been advised that it would be extremely unlikely that Wiltshire Police did not contact a victim after the initial report of a crime.

Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires the Wiltshire Police, when refusing to provide such information (because the information is exempt) to provide you the applicant with a notice which: (a) states that fact, (b) specifies the exemption in question and (c) states (if that would not otherwise be apparent) why the exemption applies.

The exemption applicable to the information requested is:

Section 12: Exemption where cost of compliance exceeds appropriate limit
Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.

In accordance with section 17 of the Act, this letter represents a Refusal Notice for this particular request.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me, and been considered in the light of your request, within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours Sincerely,

Wiltshire Police offers a re-examination of your case under its review procedure.

Any person who has requested information from Wiltshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing to the:

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker, who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Force Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within twenty working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

The Independent Decision Maker will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, taking into account the matters raised by the complaint.
