Our Ref FOI 2026-119

Dear XXXXX,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 29th January 2026, concerning use of private jets to return suspects from foreign country.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000, I would like to request the following information:

1. How many times in the past 10 years (1 January 2015 to 31 December 2025) has the force chartered a private jet to bring a suspect back to the UK from a foreign country?
2. What was the cost of arranging each of those flights?
3. What were the allegations against the suspect returned to the UK in this way?
3. In each case, what was the result of the operation to bring the suspect back, e.g. conviction, acquittal, no further action taken?
4. What was the justification for chartering a private flight to bring the suspect back rather than using conventional means eg a scheduled flight?

Our response:

The information you are requesting is exempt by virtue of Section 21 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 – Information accessible to applicant by other means.

The exemption applicable to the information requested is:

Section 21 - Information Accessible to the Applicant by Other Means

In accordance with section 17 of the Act, this letter represents a Refusal Notice for this particular request.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.
