Dear XXXX,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 29th January regarding sex offenders.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered, and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote (and our response):

Could you tell me how many registered sex offenders in your force area are currently classified as missing/wanted/whereabouts unknown. As of 03/02/2026, there are 7 registered sex offenders managed by Wiltshire Police who are classified as missing or wanted.

Furthermore, please break this down by what the risk level is for each (i.e. low, medium or high risk, or in whatever way you record this) 2 x not assessed, 2 x medium, 1 x high, 2 x very high

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Force Disclosure Decision Maker
