Dear ,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 13th February 2026 regarding an incident on 10 October 2025 in Eldene, Swindon BWV and images.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, research was conducted by Communications & Public Engagement at Wiltshire Police.

Your request for information has now been considered, and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

1. Confirmation whether body-worn video was recorded, and the total duration recorded.
2. The number of officers present with body-worn cameras.
3. A list of any media assets created for external release relating to this incident (body-worn video clips, edited footage, still images, press pack materials), including file names or identifiers, dates created, and durations, with personal data removed.
4. Copies of any video clips and still images from this incident that have already been cleared for public release or previously supplied to any media outlet.
5. If no publishable footage exists, please confirm this and provide the reason (for example, no footage recorded, footage retained only for evidential purposes, footage exempt).

Our response:

1. Yes, over 500 minutes.

2. 12.

3. <https://www.wiltshire.police.uk/news/wiltshire/news/2026/january/two-more-swindon-drug-dealers-jail...> This was the original link which is now broken. The details can also be found via: Jail for Swindon drug dealers caught in garden. The only assets issued were the body worn video and two custody images.

4. As per question 3.

5. N/A (publishable footage exists as per question 3 & 4).

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely

Force Disclosure Decision Maker

Wiltshire Police offers a re-examination of your case under its review procedure.

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from Wiltshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing to the:

Force Disclosure Unit
Wiltshire Police Headquarters,
London Road, Devizes,
Wiltshire,
SN10 2DN

Email at disclosure@wiltshire.police.uk.

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Force Disclosure Unit within 20 working days of the Force's response to the original Fol request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker, who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Force Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within twenty working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

The Independent Decision Maker will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, taking into account the matters raised by the complaint.

4. Conclusion of the Appeal

On completion of the review the Independent Decision Maker will reply to the complainant with the result of the review. If the complainant is still dissatisfied following the review they should contact the Information Commissioner to make an appeal. The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following details:
