I write in connection with your request for information dated 10/03/2026 concerning child sexual offence suspects working in early years settings.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am not obliged to supply the information you have requested.

You wrote:

I would like to request information for the financial years 2021 - 2022, 2022 - 2023, 2023 - 2024, 2024 - 2025, 2025 - 2026:

1. The number of individuals arrested or charged with a child sexual offence where the occupation recorded by police was listed as working in an early years childcare setting. This could include occupations recorded as:
 - o nursery worker
 - o nursery assistant
 - o nursery practitioner
 - o early years practitioner
 - o childcare worker
 - o nursery teacher
 - o or similar early years childcare roles.
2. If available, the number of these individuals who were subsequently convicted.
3. If available, a year-by-year breakdown of the figures above.

Please provide the information in aggregate statistical form only. I am not requesting any personal data or identifying information.

If the specific occupation categories above cannot be isolated, please provide any equivalent occupation category used by your force's recording system relating to early years childcare or nursery work.

Response:

The type of information you are requesting is not stored in a way which allows for easy retrieval. When recording an incident or crime, if the occupation of any person involved is recorded it is likely entered within the crime report. There is a non-mandatory field for occupations which is inconsistently completed, therefore there is no way of retrieving accurate results from our computer systems relating to occupations without manually interrogating every occurrence log where an individual was arrested for a child sexual offence. For the period requested, there were 3243 child sexual offences.

Under the circumstances I am absolutely confident that to locate, retrieve and extract the information you seek would by far exceed the time obligations upon this authority to comply, and in so doing would exceed the fees limits. This is set at £450 calculated at a flat rate of £25 per hour for those work activities comprising of confirming the information is held, locating it, retrieving it and extracting it. Therefore the whole of the request falls under the exemption of section 12 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Please note:

If one part of the request engages a Section 12 response, the whole request will engage a Section 12 response. The reason being is due to the fact that locating, retrieving and extracting any further information would only add to the already exceeded time obligations.

Forces may use different recording systems; therefore, it may be possible some Forces can provide this information where others cannot.

Ordinarily under our Section 16 obligation to provide advice and assistance we would advise you of a way to refine your request to a more manageable level. Due to the difficulties in obtaining the requested information, as outlined above, I cannot think of a way in which this could be achieved.

Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires Wiltshire Police, when refusing to provide information (because the information is exempt) to provide you the applicant with a notice which: (a) states that fact, (b) specifies the exemption in question and (c) states (if that would not otherwise be apparent) why the exemption applies. In accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000 this letter acts as a Refusal Notice for those aspects of your request.

Exemptions applied:

Section 12: Exemption where cost of compliance exceeds appropriate limit

Please contact me if you would like to discuss the withheld information.

Yours sincerely

Maria Evans
