Dear XXXX,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 10th March regarding foreign police officer training.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered, and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

How many foreign police officers (and other foreign law enforcement agents) did your police force provide training for in: (a) 2023; (b) 2024; (c) 2025?

Please provide a breakdown of these figures, showing the countries that these foreign police officers were from, and how many were from each country.

Our response:

0 (zero)

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Force Disclosure Decision Maker
