Dear XXXXXX,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 14th April 2026 concerning Driver Awareness Courses.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and – having consulted our Justice Traffic & Traffic Management Teams - I am now able to respond as follows.

You wrote (and Our Response)

Please can you provide me with the following information under the freedom of information act:

1. Your criteria for the offering of a driver awareness course in relation to speeding offences

Speed limit	Speed recorded (mph)
30mph	35 – 42
40mph	46 – 53
50mph	57 – 64
60mph	68 – 75
70mph	79 – 86

2. Your criteria for the offering of a driver awareness course in relation to red light offences

If a TOR (Traffic Offence Report) is issued for the offence of driving through a red light the report would be input to our Pentip system. Pentip automatically checks if the driver is allegeable for an awareness course. If not, the driver receives a fine to pay and points are placed on the driving licence. If the driver fails to pay or would like to appeal from it, the matter will go to a Single Procedure Court (SJP).

If there is a collision caused as a result of running through a red light, the decision would be made by the officer in case , based on the circumstances, driver's record, injuries, location etc.

3. Your criteria for the offering of a driver awareness course in relation to driving without due care and attention offences

If TOR (Traffic Offence Report) is issued for the offence of careless driving the report would be input to Pentip. Pentip automatically checks if the driver is allegeable for an awareness course. If not, the driver receives a fine to pay and points are placed on the driving licence. If the driver fails to pay or would like to appeal from it, the matter will go to a Single Procedure Court (SJP).

If there is a collision caused by a careless driving the decision would be made by the officer in case , based on the circumstances, driver's record, injuries, location etc.

4. For each of the above whether or not driver awareness courses are offered to new drivers (those within 2 years of passing their first driving test)

The same rules apply to a new driver as to an experienced driver. There are no separate criteria.

Yours sincerely,

Nick Penny
