Dear,

I write in connection with your request for information, dated 27th May 2026 concerning fuel theft.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, research was conducted by the Business Intelligence Department of Wiltshire Police.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am not obliged to supply the information you have requested.

You Wrote:

I would like to request the following information relating to fuel theft offences recorded by your force.

Please provide, for each of the last five complete calendar years (or financial years, if this is how your force records the data):

The total number of reported fuel theft offences recorded by the force.

The estimated total value of fuel reported stolen.

The number of those cases in which:

a suspect was identified;

a suspect was charged or summonsed;

no suspect was identified.

Where available, the average value of fuel stolen per incident.

For the purposes of this request, "fuel theft" refers to offences involving motorists leaving petrol stations without paying for fuel, sometimes categorised as "bilking", "making off without payment", or similar classifications.

Keeping Wiltshire Safe

If your force uses a different terminology or offence category, please provide the closest equivalent data available and explain the classification used.

Response:

The information that you are requesting is not stored in a which allows for easy retrieval and Wiltshire Police does not have the search facility to automatically gather this data. To clarify, our Business Intelligence Department have confirmed that there is no specific offence description for fuel theft and 'making off without payment' would not just include this either. Due to this, the only way to ascertain this information for the requested time period would be to manually search and review each and every 'making off without payment' Occurrence Log individually to determine whether they related to your request. This would be for 1365 Occurrence Logs and therefore would exceed the 18 hour work limit to locate retrieve and extract the data, engaging Section 12.

Ordinarily under our Section 16 obligation to provide advice and assistance, I would advise you of a way in which to refine your request. However, due to the difficulties as outlined above, I cannot think of a way in which this could be achieved.

Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires the Wiltshire Police, when refusing to provide such information (because the information is exempt) to provide you the applicant with a notice which: (a) states that fact, (b) specifies the exemption in question and (c) states (if that would not otherwise be apparent) why the exemption applies.

The exemption applicable to the information requested is:

Section 12: Exemption where cost of compliance exceeds appropriate limit

Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.

In accordance with section 17 of the Act, this letter represents a Refusal Notice for this particular request.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me, and been considered in the light of your request, within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours Sincerely,

Wiltshire Police offers a re-examination of your case under its review procedure.
