Dear XXXX,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 4th July regarding deaths of persons under the age of 21.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, research was conducted by the Business Intelligence Unit at Wiltshire Police.

Your request for information has now been considered, and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

Please provide me the following information:

- Number of deaths within your force area by those aged under 21 within the last 5 years that the police attended (This means the physical Presence of Uniformed Officers)
- Please provide a breakdown of this figure year by year and separate it into Gender (at Birth)
- For those that took place in public, please provide me a list of the recorded locations

Our response:

Keeping Wiltshire Safe

Reported Year / Aggrieved Gender	F	M	Grand Total
2023	1		1
2024	1	1	2
2025	2		2
2026		2	2
Grand Total	4	3	7

There were no occurrences recorded in a public place

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Force Disclosure Decision Maker
