Response:

The information that you are requesting, specifically for Questions 1(D) and all of Question Two, is not stored in a way which allows for easy retrieval and Wiltshire Police does not have the search facility to automatically gather this data. To clarify, our Business Intelligence Department have confirmed:

For Question 1(D):

As victims may disclose abuse as having occurred over a period rather than a specific date, it is not possible to provide this information without having to manually search and read each and every case individually for the requested time periods. This would for over 6,900 crimes.

For Question Two:

To determine whether named suspects have any links or is part of a grooming gang would also require a large manual review.

Due to this, it would exceed the 18 hour work limit to locate, retrieve and extract the information for these, therefore Section 12 is engaged.

However, under our duty to provide advice and assistance, I can advise that you could resubmit your request without these Questions, however please note that other exemption(s) may be applicable.

Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires the Wiltshire Police, when refusing to provide such information (because the information is exempt) to provide you the applicant with a notice which: (a) states that fact, (b) specifies the exemption in question and (c) states (if that would not otherwise be apparent) why the exemption applies.

The exemption applicable to the information requested is:

Section 12: Exemption where cost of compliance exceeds appropriate limit

Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.

In accordance with section 17 of the Act, this letter represents a Refusal Notice for this particular request.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me, and been considered in the light of your request, within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours Sincerely,

Wiltshire Police offers a re-examination of your case under its review procedure.
