Dear,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 13/07/2026 concerning Digital Forensics Backlog and Wait Times.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote with Response:

Please provide the following information:

The current number of digital devices (including but not limited to mobile phones, laptops, hard drives, and tablets) currently waiting in the digital forensics queue to be analyzed/examined as of the date of this request.

804

The average turnaround time (in days or months) for a digital device to be examined by your digital forensics unit over the last 12-month period, or the most recent reporting period available. If possible, please break this down by priority tier (e.g., urgent/high priority vs. standard/low priority).

1,197 CASES were completed in the last 12 months within the following timescales.

A case will contain multiple exhibits.

	High	Medium	Low	Total
2 Weeks	48	53	20	121

1 Month	28	22	6	56
2 Months	24	22	8	54
3 Months	18	17	5	40
6 Months	53	57	14	124
12 Months	102	205	17	324
12+ Months	125	291	62	478

The longest single duration a device currently in your queue has been waiting for examination.

123 weeks

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely

Force Disclosure Decision Maker

Wiltshire Police offers a re-examination of your case under its review procedure.

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from Wiltshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing to the:

Force Disclosure Unit
Wiltshire Police Headquarters,
London Road, Devizes,
Wiltshire,
SN10 2DN

Email at disclosure@wiltshire.police.uk.

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Force Disclosure Unit within 20 working days of the Force's response to the original FoI request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker, who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Force Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within twenty working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

The Independent Decision Maker will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, taking into account the matters raised by the complaint.

4. Conclusion of the Appeal

Keeping Wiltshire Safe

On completion of the review the Independent Decision Maker will reply to the complainant with the result of the review. If the complainant is still dissatisfied following the review they should contact the Information Commissioner to make an appeal. The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following details:
