Dear XXXXXX,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 22nd Septmeber 2026 concerning Offences related to the RNLI.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and – having consulted our Business Intelligence Team - I am now able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

Under the FOI Act, please provide me with the following information relating to the Royal National Lifeboat Institution.

Q1: For the year 2026 so far, please provide the number of offences where the location or/and summary includes 'RNLI' or 'Royal National Lifeboat Institution'.

Q2: For the offences above, please provide breakdown on the offence listed. Eg 'assault x 2', 'harrassment x 4'

Q3: For the offences above, please provide each offence summary with date and location (if not a private address).

Q4: For the year 2025 so far, please provide the number of offences where location or/and summary includes 'RNLI' or 'Royal National Lifeboat Institution'.

Our response:

We do not have a specific option for "RNLI" under our Organisation Type field on our crime recording database. The nearest similar flag is for 'Coastguard' under Organisation Type, but there are no crimes listed under this flag during 2025 and 2026.

We have then run wildcard searches of our crime occurrence summary field using the keywords 'RNLI' and 'Royal National Lifeboat Institution'. There are no crimes listed for 2025 and 2026 containing these keywords.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Nick Penny

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from Wiltshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing to the:

Force Disclosure Unit
Wiltshire Police Headquarters,
London Road, Devizes,
Wiltshire,
SN10 2DN

Email at disclosure@wiltshire.pnn.police.uk.

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Force Disclosure Unit within 20 working days of the Force's response to the original FoI request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker, who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Force Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within twenty working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

The Independent Decision Maker will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, taking into account the matters raised by the complaint.

4. Conclusion of the Appeal

On completion of the review the Independent Decision Maker will reply to the complainant with the result of the review. If the complainant is still dissatisfied following the review they should contact the Information Commissioner to make an appeal. The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following details:

Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
Cheshire
