Dear,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 03/09/2026 concerning police uniforms.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote with Response:

1. Please provide the number of items of uniform (a) trousers and (b) shirts ordered or issued by your force in each of the last two calendar years (2024 and 2025), broken down by garment size, from the smallest to the largest size stocked (e.g. XS through to 6XL, or equivalent numeric/waist sizing).

   2024 no shirts or trousers were ordered due sufficient stock. 2025

   Female S/S Blue 100 Shirts Size Small

   Female S/S Blue 150 Shirts Size Medium

   Male S/S Black 150 Shirts Size Large

   Male S/S Black 50 Shirts Extra, Extra Large

2. Please state the largest size of stock (standard-issue) body armour issued by your force.

   Currently the largest size we have ordered and stocked is a size male 15 5XL.

3. Please provide the number of made-to-measure or custom-sized body armour vests ordered by your force in each of the last two calendar years (2024 and 2025), and the total cost of those orders.

   N/A we have never had the need to order a specific custom-made armour cover to date.

4. If uniform is procured via a shared service or collaborative arrangement, please provide the figures relating to your force where held, or indicate which body holds the information.

   N/A.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely

Force Disclosure Decision Maker

Wiltshire Police offers a re-examination of your case under its review procedure.

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from Wiltshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing to the:

Force Disclosure Unit
Wiltshire Police Headquarters,
London Road, Devizes,
Wiltshire,
SN10 2DN

Email at disclosure@wiltshire.police.uk.

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Force Disclosure Unit within 20 working days of the Force's response to the original FoI request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker, who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Force Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within twenty working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

The Independent Decision Maker will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, taking into account the matters raised by the complaint.

4. Conclusion of the Appeal

On completion of the review the Independent Decision Maker will reply to the complainant with the result of the review. If the complainant is still dissatisfied following the review they should contact the Information Commissioner to make an appeal. The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following details:
